Honorable Henry A. Kissinger
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Dr. Kissinger:

I have been informed on a confidential basis of some of the attitudes expressed by Congressman William R. Anderson on his visit to Latin America. In his discussions with various governmental officials, his main objective has been to portray the President's administration as being unfeeling toward Latin America and he has implied that the Democrats would be much more sympathetic to the problems of that area if they were returned to the Presidency.

The alleged desire of the Congressman to obtain the Vice Presidential nomination of the Democratic Party in 1972 has apparently been rather poorly concealed during his contacts on this trip. I thought that both you and the President would be interested in this information.

Sincerely,

J. Edgar Hoover
